

The Warwick School

PUBLICATION SCHEME ON INFORMATION AVAILABLE UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools such as The Warwick, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we have a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is either available for you on our website to download and print off or available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

The Warwick School is a forward thinking and innovative specialist technology school which:

- Encourages mutual respect and tolerance, through clear expectations of achievement and high standards of behaviour
- Promotes excellence and enjoyment by developing self respect through recognising and celebrating success
- Recognises human interdependence through the nurturing of positive relationships
- Provides a caring and supportive framework where sensitivity to individual needs enables students to feel secure and worthwhile
- Articulates moral, spiritual and cultural values which enable students to take responsibility in becoming active and responsible contributors to society
- Challenges students via a broad, balanced and relevant personalised curriculum that opens new pathways for personal, social and professional fulfilment
- Provides an exciting, rich environment where a passion for learning is paramount, thereby instilling enthusiasm and a love of learning for life
- Enables students to develop lively and enquiring minds with the ability to reflect and question rationally

- Is a centre of excellence forging a dynamic relationship with the local community, working in partnership to our mutual benefit
- Believes in the use of technology as a driving force empowering our students to shape the 21st Century and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published
